

INFORMATION

PARKING TIMES

The City of Bath provides free, unmetered parking to all on-street users or in municipal lots for two hours or less, unless otherwise signed. On-street parking is enforced 8am to 5pm, Monday through Saturday. Parking in permit lots is permitted after 6 and on weekends.

FEES/FINES

Parking violators will receive a courtesy ticket every 6 months. Following that the first overtime ticket is $15, the second $20 and so on building progressively through a 6-month period.

BATH BUS

The Bath Bus leaves regularly from Downtown and loops throughout the City. Schedules are available at cityofbath.com or in City Hall.

PAYING FEES

Fees may be mailed to the Bath PD or paid in person. Late fees are subject to increased fines so be sure to get your tickets paid.

DOWNTOWN PARKING PERMIT

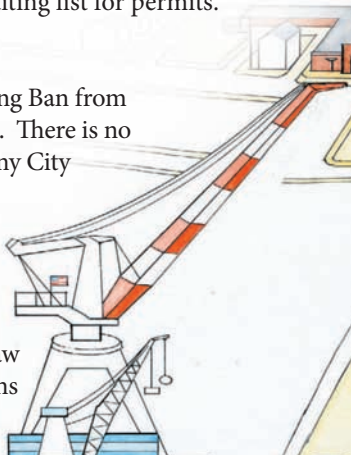

A Downtown Parking Permit may be purchased at the cost of $40 per month. Each permit is for a specific lot within the downtown. If interested be sure to contact the Bath Police Department, do note there sometimes is a waiting list for permits.

PARKING BAN

Bath has a Winter Parking Ban from November 15-March 15. There is no over-night parking on any City streets during this time.

PEDESTRIANS

Bath is a great place to walk around. Just remember it is Maine law to stop for all pedestrians in crosswalks.

HELPFUL HINTS

The City of Bath is proud of its pedestrian-friendly city. Ample longer-term parking is available within just a few blocks of the City's attractions. We strongly encourage Downtown employees to leave parking along the streets with shops for people doing errands and shopping. Enjoy your short walk!
